

A warrant of election, as directed by the constitution, was accordingly issued, directed to the sheriff of Cecil county, signed by the Speaker, and attested by the Clerk, and transmitted forthwith, by express.

The house then adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.

THURSDAY, January 8, 1829.

The house met. Were present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The clerk of the senate delivered a bill, originated in, and passed by that body, entitled, An act to repeal an act, entitled, An additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act respecting the equity jurisdiction of the county courts of this state; which was read by its title, and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

And returned the bill, entitled, An act to authorise Edward Browne, former sheriff and collector of Kent county, to complete his collections; endorsed, "will not pass."

Mr. Beckett, chairman of the committee on claims, delivered the following reports on the accounts and proceedings of the treasurer of the western and eastern shores, from the first day of December 1827, to the first day of December 1828; which were read, and, with the accompanying accounts, statements, and other documents from the respective treasury departments, referred to the committee on ways and means, and ordered to be printed, viz.

BY THE COMMITTEE OF CLAIMS.

Your committee report, that they have examined the proceedings and documents of George Mackubin, treasurer for the western shore of Maryland, and find, from an account settled to 1st December 1827, by the committee of claims of the last general assembly, there then remained in the treasury, three hundred and thirty-five thousand one hundred and four dollars and seventy-four cents, funded, three per cent stock; three thousand one hundred and forty-three dollars and ninety-five cents, in bills of credit of the emission under an act of Congress of the 18th March 1780; and seventy-six thousand two hundred and ninety-one dollars and thirty-nine cents cash.

That it appears to your committee, by the accounts of the said treasurer, he has received from the 1st December 1827, to the 1st December 1828.
